Piercings: About a fifth of young people with body piercings get health problems, a new report has shown. Now your best friend has decided to get a piercing.

- You send him an email giving him some advice
- Give at least five tips which you explain as well. It is more interesting if you tell a story or give an example to explain the reason for a particular piece of advice.
- Make sure your text has a logical structure and is clearly divided into a number of paragraphs. (min. 200 words)
